TAMMANY ROASTED

The Democratic Pot-House Politiclans Who Run New York.

THE TERRIBLE RESPONSIBILITY

Laid at Their Doors By Rev. Dr. Dixon in His Sermon Yesterday. Something to be Remembered by Those Who Apologize for the Villainies of Tammany Hall-The Institution May Prove to be a National Scourge as Well as a National Disgrace.

New York, Sept. 25. - Rev. Dr. Thomas Dixon, before his sermon to-day spoke of the lesson America should learn from the appearance of cholera, Said he in part: "The sudden appearance of Asiatic cholera in the bay of New York carries with it a startling message to the poeple of America. We have been taught that pot-house politics is a poor training for health officials. We must commend in part the zeal with which our quarantine officers have sought to prevent the entrance of the disease prevent the entrance of the disease into the city. But say what we will about the efficiency of our quarantine its methods have been a jumble of stupidity and brutality, with scarcely a trace of executive ability backed by scientific knowledge. The public opinion that supports such methods is no better than the mob of ignorant baymen that drove helpless women and children with guns and stones from the landing at Fire Island.

"The conduct of this quarantine business has not only been a disgrace to the American nation, it is more; it is a stigma on the history of the Anglo-stigma on the history of the Anglo-Saxon race. It lacks the record of humanity itself. And we must thank our pot house politicians, whose life principle is to the victor belong the our pot house politicians, whose life principle is to the victor belong the spoils.

"We have learned that there are great steamship companies whose sole aim in life is to coin money. To do this, they do not hesitate to sell the health of sixty-two millions of people in America for the price of the steerage passage of a few hundred pest stricken refugees. Every city in America is at the mercy of New York. New York is at the mercy of every city in America. Let our brethren in other cities remember this when they apologize for and excuse the villainies of Tammany Hall for the sake of the vote the gang polls in a presidential election. Let the men who stand for decency in their homes and cities, and yet accent with a chuckle an invitation to speak in the den on Fourteenth street remember these facts. Tammany Hall is not simply a local disgrace. It may be a national scourge. I believe that God has sent the cholera to our doors as an object lesson to tell us of the still more deadly moral disease we are daily importing. What is the sense in moving heaven and earth to quarantine a few victims of pest ridden Hamburg and at the same time opening wide our gates to John Most and Berkman."

"Why buy an island to quarantine 500 well American citizens and open

"Why buy an island to quarantine 500 well American citizens and open our gates to the thousands who formed formed the mobs at Haymarket square, delivered New Orleans over to the reign of assassins and called forth an army in Pennsylvania and New York to restore order? Does any thinking man doubt, in view of the recent events that these steamships companies are in collusion with the prisons and poor houses in Europe?"

THE STORM AT PITTSBURGH.

Great Damage Done-Trees Blown Down. Electrical Disturbances. Pittsburgh, Pa., Sept. 25.—One of the heaviest thunder storms of the season passed over this section about 8 o'clock to-night doing great damage. A high wind prevailed at the time and the rain fell in torrents. Trees and fences were blown down, telegraph, telephone and electric light wires prostrated and sevelectric light wires prostrated and several houses were struck by lightning. As far as known, however, no one was seriously injured. In the Butchers' run district and in the higher parts of the city cellars were flooded and small out houses washed from their foundations, The storm left the Western Union and Postal Telegraph Companies healty gripples, while houses washed structured to the western the companies when the postal telegraph companies healty gripples, while houstests of nies badly crippled, while hundreds o telephones were rendered useless. a result of the prostration of electric light wires districts are in total dark-ness to-night. The loss by the storm cannot now be estimated.

INNOCENT MAN HANGED.

A Negro Confesses to a Murder for Which Another Negro was Lynched.

New Onleans, La., Sept. 25.—Last night ex-Judge J. C. Bauman, of Kannerville, was arrested in this city, charged with being accessory to the at tempted assassination of Judge Long in Kennerville, La., last July. He was Kennerville, La, last July. He was taken to Gretna and locked up. Bauman's arrest grows out of the confession of Dennis Richards, the negro who was arrested last Friday. Richards admits that he fired the shots which wounded Judge Long, but further says that Bauman offered him $100 to kill Long. He says that he was in communication with Bauman after the shooting, and that Bauman promised to send him money and to use his induced to get him out of trouble. The confession of Richards was a surprise, and the accusation he makes against Rauman creates a sensation, both in Kennerville and this city, where he is well known. Another feature of the case is that a few weeks ago a negronamed Dixon was lynched for the very crime which Richards now confesses that he committed himself, instigated by Bauman. by Bauman.

REFUSED BAIL.

Hugh O'Donnell stast Remain in Jall.
Confident of an Acquittal.
Pittsuurgu, Pa., Sept. 25.—"Have been refused bail; must remain here until tried by court," were the words telegraphed by Hugh O'Donnell from the jail to his wife at Homestead vesterday immediately after retiring from the court-room. There he had listened to Judge Porter's reasons why the prisoner, charged with the murder of Captain Klein in connection with the Homestead trouble could not be admitted to O'Donnell had been called into court shortly after 9 o'clock in the morning to hear the court's decision. He listened to the unfavorable opinion without showing nervousness. His jail life had apparently agreed with him, and he looked fresh and pleasant. There were but few people in the courtroom when the important session opened. The delay in the decision had convinced the prisoner that it would be unfavorable to him, and he listened attentively to the reading of the opinion without apparent concern. After hearing the decision O'Donnell shook hands with one or two of his friends who had gathered O'Donnell had been called into court or two of his friends who had gathered about him, but, without remaining to talk, followed the deputy sheriff back to the jail.

After being returned to his cell the prisoner telegraphed to his wife, and then took up a morning paper. To Warden McAleese he said he was not disappointed in Judge Porter's decision. "I realized the delay in reaching a conclusion was against me, and I would have been agreeably surprised had I cusion was against mo, and I would have been agreeably surprised had I been admitted to bail," O'Donnell said. "I have no fear of the trial in court. I am content in the belief that a jury will decide that I had no part in the killing for which I am charged."

A SOCIALIST'S SPEECH.

They Know No Nationalism—The Victory Over Bismarck.

Manseilles, Sept. 25 .- At a meeting of the Workingmen's Congress to-day Herr Liebknect, representing the Socialists of Germany, made an address in which he stated: "For Socialists the question of nationalism does not exist. We know but two nations—the nation in possession and a nation of proletarians formed of workingmen of all countries. Between Frenchmen and Germans there is a broad river of blood, for the flowing of which we are innocent and our enemies are responsible. But it does not form a frontier of hatred between Socialists. We protested against the fratricidal war of 1870. The Socialists constitute a great army, of which the workingmen of France and Germany and elsewhere form the different army corps. We have besten Bismarck after a struggle lasting twenty-five years and we are ready to shed our last drop of blood for socialism." He concluded his stirring address by shouting, "Long live the International Revolutionary We know but two nations-the nation live the International Revolutionary

The utterances of Herr Liebnecht weregreeted with enthusiastic applause.

COLUMBUS, OHIO, Sept. 25 .- William Lyons, a colored convict, serving two and one-half years from Belmont coun and one-half years from Belmont county, attempted suicide in his cell tonight, first by inflicting slight wounds with a pocket knife and later by tearing up a sheet to hang himself. He was discovered by a guard. The man is not in his right mind and wants to get out of work.

Justice Lamar III.

New York, Sept. 25 .- A Philadelphia dispatch to a morning paper says: Justice L. Q. C. Lamar, of the United States supreme court, was stricken with paralysis on Wednesday in Washington shortly after his return from the White mountains of New Hampshire. He is now much better, and was up and around his house in Washington yes-terday. Mr. Lamar returned to Wash-ington a week ago to attend to his offi-

He has grossly insulted the American consul and threatened to revoke his exquator.

METHODIST DAY

At Huntington-The Conference Members Fill the Pulpits. Special Dispatch to the In-

HUNTINGTON, W. VA., Sept. 25.-To-day has been Methodist day at Huntington, all the churches being supplied by Methodist ministers. This is a city of beautiful church edifices, and early in the day the bells rang out proclaimin the day the beils rang out proclaming the hour of service. The great attraction was at the First Methodist church, the seat of the conference. At 9 a.m. Rev. Benjamin Darlington conducted the annual conference love feast. This meeting attracted a large congregation of the faithful, who gave testimony to the wonderful influence of the bulg anity upon their lives. By 10:30 mony to the wonderful influence of the holy spirit upon their lives. By 10:30 the large audience room and the chapel were filled to overflowing to hear Bishop Thomas Bowman. The bishop announced for his text Matthews 13:45, 6—"Again the kingdom of heaven is likened to a merchantman seeking goodly pearls," etc. The speaker said Christ was the great preacher. He seized upon every passing event to illustrate some spiritual truth. Though the bishop is seventy-five years of age, the sermon spiritual truth. Though the bishop is seventy-five years of age, the sermon was rich in thought, and under his wit, pathos and logic the vast audience was swayed at his will. After the sermon a large class of promising young men were ordained as deacons.

At 3 p. m. Dr. C. W. Smith, editor of the Pittsburgh Christian Advocate, preached a sermon of rare beauty and power to a large congregation. Dr.

the Pittsburgh Christian Advocate, preached a sermon of rare beauty and power to a large congregation. Dr. Smith is a special favorite in the West Virginia conference. After the sermon a large class, who have been traveling for the past four years, were ordained to elders orders.

At 7:30 p. m. Dr. J. W. Hamilton one of the secretaries of the Freedman's, Aid, and author of the famous Hamilton amendment in the late general conference, preached to the great delight of a crowded house. It will be remembered that Dr. Hamilton is the builder and former pastor of the People's church, of Boston. At the session on Saturday the most important transaction was the adoption, after a spirited discussion, of the resolution providing for the support of the worn out ministers. It provides that every disabled minister shall receive ten dollars for every year he has been in the active ministry and that each minister shall pay into that fund one per cent of his salary. The widow is to receive one-half what the husband would be entitled to, and each child under 12 years of age, one fifth of what the father would be entitled to were he living. The conference will adjourn Monday night.

MRS. HARRISON'S CONDITION.

MRS. HARRISON'S CONDITION. She Rests Comfortably-No New Complica-

tion Has Set In.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 25 .- The weather was very oppressive in Washington last night, particularly before midnight. Its effect was apparent on Mrs. Harrison, who was unusually restless and wakeful. This fact gave rise to a rumor which was current to-night a rumor which was current to-night that there had been a change for the worse in her condition. This, however, Dr. Gardner, her physician, asserts is not the case. He reports that Mrs. Har-rison slept several hours during the day and took her usual amount of nourish mont and that she is as comfortable as usual to-night and is resting quietly. No no complication of any character has manifested itself, nor is there an indication of any.

GLADSTONE VS. ARGYLL.

he Premier Replies to His Adversary's Attack on Home Rule-How the Tory Thunderer Views the Controversy.

LONDON, Sept. 25.—The Times has the full text of Mr. Gladstone's vindication of home rule, which was to appear in an American publication to-day, cabled to it from New York last night. This article is written in reply to one by the article is written in reply to one by the duke of Argyll published in the same magazine last month. This morning's issue of the Times contains, besides Mr. Gladstone's articles, a long leader, in which it attacks his premises and deductions.

seeks to palm off an argument, and Americans from their domestic experiences have slight difficulty in deciding whether, as a rule, Irish organizations managed by Irish partisans are distinguished for intelligence or integrity. The Times adds:

We have heard of Tammany events on the other side of the ceean, and of the arts by which Tammany Hall was secured. Mr. Gladstone's ideal is Ireland ruled on Tammany principles, unrestrained by any effectual legal limits save of his own making. We see nothing in the disjointed tracts and miscellaneous documents he advances with so much unnecessary pomp to weaken the description his opponent has given. His efforts at historical inquiry are all permented with that tone of fable which invariably marks his description of Irish events.

JOHN DILLON INJURED.

An Accident While Riding in a Jaunting

Dunlin, Sept. 25 .- Mr. John Dillon, the prominent Irish Nationalist, met with a very painful accident in this city to-day. Mr. Dillon was riding in a car, when in some way he was thrown violently from the seat to the ground, his body striking the earth with much force. When the carman and others rushed to his assistance it was found that Mr. Dillon had received a severe that Mr. Dillon had received a severe cut on the face, and that the bone in his left fore arm was broken. He was greatly shaken up by his violent fall, but the attending surgeon announces that the patient is progressing favora-bly and that no serious results are an-ticipated from his injuries.

A STEAMER IN TROUBLE. A Day and a Half Over Due-Machinery

Out of Gear.

London, Sept. 25 .- The Guion line steamer Alaska, Capt. Murray, which sailed from New York on September 17 for Liverpool, is at this writing (1:30 a. m.) 36 hours overdue. The captain of the Cunard line steamer Aurania which left New York on the same day as the Alaska and arrived at Liverpool to-day reports that he passed the Alaska out-side of New York. The Alaska was proceeding at only a slow rate of speed nd apparently something had happen-d on board of the vessel which im-ed on board of the verset which impeded her progress.

No signals were exchanged between the two steamers as to cause of the slowing down her speed, but it was supposed by those on the Aurania that her engines had got out of order.

Panis, Sept. 25.-Telegraphic dispatches were received here to-day from Colonel Dodds, the officer in command of the French forces now operating in Dahomey against King Behanzin, the native ruler. Colonel Dodds says: "The flower of the Dahomeyan army was killed in Monday's battle. The French troops are preparing to make another attack on the enemy."

A Bark Wrecked.

LONDON, Sept. 25. - The French bark Tranquebar, Captain Cochery, from Cardiff August 3 for Para, has the coldest days, when his companions wrecked at Brazanca bank. Five of the were completely lost in furs, clad in only ordinary clothes. He would often undress and plunge into the pools that bers of the crew were drowned.

GEN. HUSTED DEAD.

He Dies from the Efficies of the Attack While Enroute to Minnespolis, PEERSKILL, N. Y., Sept. 25.—Gen. J.

W. Husted died at his residence here at 7:30 o'clock to-night. General Husted was taken ill on his way to the Republican convention in June last. He left New York with the Republican delegates and before he arrived at Minneapolis he was taken down and it was feared that he would expire before reaching his destination. As soon as he was taken ill some of those aboard the train administered to him a dose of medicine, and it is said that it was an overdose and caused the illness from which he died to-night. After the convention the general was brought home to Peckskill in a special car and taken to his residence, where he remained hovering between life and death. Today the general gradually grew worse, and at about 4 o'clock he began to sink, dying four hours afterwards. He passed away peacefully. He was conscious to the last.

Gen. Husted was born at Bedford, West Chester county, New York, Oct. 31, 1833. He graduated from Yale college in 1854. He was admitted to the bar in 1857. He has held many public offices and has the longest legislative service of any man in the history of the state, namely 18 years. He also had the distinction of having been speaker of the house of the legislature more times than any other man, having been speaker six times. For over thirty years Gen. Husted had been in active political life.

The deceased had also taken active in-7:30 o'clock to-night. General Husted was taken ill on his way to the Repub-

Political life.

The deceased had also taken active interest in the national guard of the state, being a member of the organization and serving as judge advocate of the Seventh brigade and major general of the fifth division.

Gen. Husted was a distinguished member of the Masonic fraternity and once held the position of grand master of that body. He was also a thirty-third degree man.

CAMP LOW, SANDY HOOK, N. thrown into excitement by the appearance within the lines of a tramp whose arrival is enshrouded in mystery. The man has the appearance of having received rough usage from the torn condition of his clothing, and he is hatless. He is a German and gave his name as Anton Puda. He is apparently a lunatic, and told the officers that he left New York the last time he was shaved, apparently some months since, and that he walked here on the water. He added that he had been locked up for three months for voluntarily walking into prison.

As far as can be learned the man eluded the sentinels posted by the New Jersey authorities at the state line boundary and got on the ground cecupied by the regular troops at Sandy Hook, who turned him over into the marine camp, whose officers in turn ran him out of their lines into our camp under the impression that he was an escaped emmigrant. He was ordered by Major Sawtelle to be fed and on seeing the food the poor wretch ate with the avidity of a wild beast. He is housed in a tent down the railroad lines and is under surveillance of a guard.
